Our 2014 Grenache opens with aromas of bright Bing cherry, pomegranate, white pepper and aromatic Darjeeling tea. Also present, notes of wet stone, paraffin, tamarind and plum. The palate is expansive, succulent and precise with a density and texture balanced in mouthwatering juiciness. Flavors move from soaked cherries, rock dust, white nutmeats, to hints of licorice and Pfefferneusse. The finish is clean, long, taught and poised.
