TASTING NOTES:

The 2014 Dundee Hills Pinot Noir opens with aromas of cherry and plum, sassafras, cedar, rose petals, violet pastilles and Spanish paprika. On the palate is a fruity core of cherry and Emily's Oregon grape and quince jam, vanilla sugar, thumbed penny, chili powder and black salt licorice. The texture is plush, expansive and succulent with mouth filling diaphanous tannins and a persistent finish both confectionary and saline.
